

(Updated on January 24th, 2020)

Schengen Visas are valid for the following 26 countries:

Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, The Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.

A Schengen Visa is not appropriate if you wish to remain in a Schengen member state longer than 3 months or take up employment or establish a business or practice a profession.

Where to apply for a Schengen visa:

If you are not a resident of Pakistan you should apply to the Embassy or Consulate in your country of residence. You have to apply at the Visa Services of the European country of your main destination (normally it is the country of the longest visit). Under no circumstances a country where you wish to make transit can be considered the country of main destination. If a main destination can not be determined you have to apply at the Embassy of the country of first entry.

44 AIRPORT TRANSIT VISA

AIRPORT TRANSIT VISAS are for applicants who are not leaving the international transit area of the airport.

Read carefully before applying for the visa:

In case the transit concerns a single airport transit, you have to submit your application at the Embassy/Consulate of the Member State on whose territory that airport is.

In case the transit concerns several airport transits, you have to submit your application at the Embassy/Consulate of the Member State on whose territory the first transit airport is situated.
